NUMBER 32

The Progress of Campbellsville.

In passing through Campbellsville a person forms a small conception of the magnitude of the place, but to go over it you are convinced that it is "a city that can not be hid."

Last Saturday a representative of this paper was called to this thriving town, and while there, was driven in an automobile, by Mr. Robert J. Lyon, one of the firm of Buchanan, Lyon Company, out the principal streets. As he had not been over the town in many years, he was surprised at the growth of the place during the last decade. The last census gave Campbellsville a population of less than fifteen hundred, but we are satisfied that as many as twenty-five hundred persons, who are town people to all intents and purposes, make up the population. People who do not reside in the corporate limits are not taken when the enumerator comes round, hence there are persons who are doing business upon Main Street, living over the line, and are not counted citizens of the incorporated town—do not pay municipal taxes, but live in town all the same.

In going over Campbellsville, The News man was deeply impressed with the many beautiful homes, attractive lawns, etc. There are miles of concrete walks in the city, and the business houses are large and conveniently arranged. There are many buildings in Campbellsville which would be a credit to a town of fifteen or twenty thousand population. The banking and office building, owned and built by Mr. Geo. H. Gowdy recently, is a magnificent structure, one of the most imposing business houses ever saw in what is termed, by metropolitan people, a country town. It was built at great expense, but it will be a monument to the memory of Mr. Gowdy long after he crosses to the other side. The whole town is proud of this building, and their appreciation, often expressed, is just and due the gentleman who erected it. The interior of Mr. Gowdy's bank is finished in rosewood and marble, and it is a thing of beauty.

The writer did not attend the tobacco meeting which was held at the court house in the forenoon, the object being to form a corporation and start a loose leaf house. Before leaving town he learned that all arrangements were virtually settled, and that the enterprise was a sure go. Such a house will certainly be very convenient for the tobacco growers of Taylor and adjoining counties.

The two hotels were busy during the day. The writer stopped at The New Merchant, and was very delightfully entertained.

The growth of Campbellsville shows conclusively what a railroad will do for a town, hence there should be no let up upon the part of the people of Adair county to secure a road to Columbia.

The two papers published in Campbellsville are doing well, both reporting that they were having a fine run on job-work and that their advertising patronage good.

Dr. W. T. Chandler's drug store is where the bureau of information is located. The doctor is generally surrounded by intelligent gentlemen, and if you are seeking information, you do not have to go further.

D. W. Gowdy, Dr. J. B. Buchanan, R. E. Puyar, Dr. W. T. Chandler, J. E. Gowdy and others do not look like barefooted boys at play. Their looks have grown thin and gray since their boyhood days, but the world has been good to them, and the writer believes they will continue to do all the good they can in the world.

Campbellsville is soon to have water works, work for the reservoir having commenced.

The Buchanan Lyon Co. continues to enjoy a large trade. During the day, Saturday, we noticed a number of customers who live fifteen and twenty miles from C-ville making purchases. At this place you can get any thing you want from a paper of pins to a threshing machine. Enough for the present—some other time.

Rev. J. G. Freeman, a superannuated Methodist preacher, who was known to great many Adair county people, was burned to death at his home in Elizabethtown on the night of the 2nd of this month. He was standing in front of a grate dressed in his night robe, when his clothing caught fire, with the result as above stated. His wife's hands got badly burned in trying to extinguish the flames.

Mrs. Geo. E. Wilson has a nice Ice Cream Parlor on Burkesville Street. She solicits your patronage. 31-2t

It will only be a few weeks until brick laying at the new dormitory will commence.

A new brown work shirt found and left at this office.

The Railroad Situation.

The delegation sent by the Columbia Commercial Club for a conference with the L. & N. officials regarding the building of a railroad from Campbellsville to Columbia, or the extension of the L. & N. from Greensburg, reports that no prospects are in sight for immediate work.

Their conference was with Mr. W. L. Maypath, First Vice President of the road, and a gentleman and business man of the highest integrity. The entire situation was discussed, affecting the interests of this section as well as the railroad company, and while that company would pride in the development of this part of the State, now without railroad facilities, the committee was informed that the company would not, at this time, take any financial interest in the building of the road, but when business conditions would justify the investment, the company would take up this proposition with the people here and would co-operate with us in its building.

From what we can learn from those who were in the conference every one feels hopeful that before another decade passes Columbia will be on the railroad map. Each one speaks in the highest terms of Mr. Maypath, of his courteous treatment and the interest he manifested in the proposed enterprise and welfare of this part of the State. The old saying that "Rome was not built in a day," and "keeping everlastingly at it brings success" ought to apply and inspire in our efforts to secure a railroad. The situation is a hopeful one and in due course of time with reasonable effort and interest on our part, success will come.

Machine Shop.

I have purchased the W. A. Helm outfit, and am located at his former shops on Bomar Heights, Columbia, Ky. I am prepared to do all kinds of work in the way of repairing machinery. I also furnish repairs, in either brass or iron fixtures.

I am fully qualified to do all kinds of work. I solicit your patronage. 26-2m J. M. Kearnes.

Bridge Received and Bill Paid.

The people living on Green river and at Knifley and Roley are greatly elated over the replacing of the iron bridge across Green river at Plum Point. The Fiscal Court met a few days ago, received the bridge, after inspection, and paid for it. The total cost of replacing, some few pieces having to be supplied, was $2,100. It is said to be a splendid piece of work, and is pronounced one of the best bridges in the county.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued from the Adair County Clerk's office during the month of May: Lambert Sanders to Mary Cundiff. E. R. Miller to Bessie Davenport. J. B. Morgan to Leather Moss. A. G. Price to Ermine Page. O. L. McKinley to Susie Bryant.

The first day of circuit court invariably brings a large crowd to Jamestown. Next Monday court opens and people from all over the county will be in attendance, and many from adjoining counties. There is usually some stock on the market, horses and mules, and more than likely a number of sales will be made. Notwithstanding hundreds of people attend the Russell circuit court, the crowd is invariably orderly. Many come on business, while others come to meet and shake hands with friends, talk over crop prospects, etc.

4 foot cord wood wanted at once at brickyard, Columbia, $2.50 per cord. W. H. Simms.

A young man who lives at Garland, Texas, has sent this office a letter for publication and he also sent his photograph. He did not sign the letter, and we have failed to find a person who recognizes the picture. The writer states that he either left this town or Adair county in 1903.

Rubber Tires Put On and Guaranteed. Goff Bros.

Mr. Olie McKinley and Miss Susie Bryant, who live in the White Oak precinct, were married on the Lindsey. Wilson hill last Sunday by Rev. J. S. Chandler.

The work of plastering the new Baptist church is now in progress. It will take several weeks to complete the work.

Speaking at Campbellsville.

The appointments of Gov. J. B. McCreary, candidate for United States Senator, and Hon. Rollin Hurt, candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, drew a fairly good crowd of Democrats to Campbellsville last Saturday.

Gov. McCreary spoke first, occupying one hour and fifteen minutes. He dwelt upon his record as a Democratic official, both in State and in the nation, covering a period of a half century and also his record as a private citizen. He referred to former Gov. Beckham and Congressman Stanley, his opponents, but did so in a most courteous manner. His record as a Confederate soldier was also given, being reminded of the dark and bloody days by being so close to the Green River Bridge where a memorable battle was fought in 1863. The Governor made a good impression, and he has considerable support in Taylor county.

He was followed by Mr. Hurt, who spoke only twenty-five minutes, saying a great deal in that length of time. Before the hour of speaking, Mr. Hurt was greeted by many Taylor county citizens, who say that there is scarcely a doubt but he will carry the county by a large majority.

Both Gov. McCreary and Mr. Hurt were introduced by Mr. J. R. Sanders.

Will Go to a Farm.

Mr. H. V. Denver, son-in-law of Mrs. M. E. Marcum, this place, and Mr. Sam Burdett, son-in-law of Mrs. Lena Paull, purchased last week, what is known as the widow Sanders' farm, containing 90 acres, good dwelling and outbuildings, located three miles this side of Lebanon. Price private. They are now in possession, but will not remove to the farm until the first of January. It is a fine piece of property and said to be a bargain at the money.

Wool Wanted.

We pay the highest cash price. Campbellsville Manufacturing Co., Campbellsville, Ky., or we will manufacture your wool as you direct. 23-2m Received His Diploma.

Prof. Paul C. Chandler, of this place, son of Rev. J. S. Chandler, graduated from Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, last week. He was the Faculty representative and he spoke on "The Efficiency of the College." Prof. Chandler reached home the latter part of last week, and will at once commence working for the Lindsey-Wilson, having been elected as co-principal for the coming year.

For Sale.

Good Deering Mower (new) 30-3t G. W. Dillon, Breeding, Ky.

As an evidence that the wheat crop of Adair county will be unusually large, a number of fields, the ground not being very strong, will turn out from fifteen to twenty-five bushels to the acre. A man who was reared upon a farm and knows how to estimate, said to the News a few days ago, that if he was a betting man he would be willing to wager that Mr. Allen Walker would garner 500 bushels from his McFarland farm, in the suburbs of Columbia.

Mr. Mikel, who is a skilled stone mason, will finish the foundation for the dormitory this week. He also put in the foundation for the Baptist church, the two jobs being pronounced by inspectors as extra good. Dr. Browder, of Russellville, a member of the building committee, was here last week and inspected the foundation of the dormitory. He was so well pleased that he tried to induce Mr. Mikel to come to his town and lay the foundation for a school building.

Go to Mrs. Wilson's Ice Cream Parlor on Burkesville street. Cream and Sherbert every day. 31-2t

Gov. J. B. McCreary and Hon. Rollin Hurt spoke at Campbellsville last Saturday, the former in the interest of his candidacy for United States Senator, the latter being a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, subject to the August primary.

A grandfather of Mr. Sam Burdett, of this place, died near Lebanon last week. Mr. Burdett and Mr. H. V. Denver went over to the funeral.

J. B. Barbee bought, in Louisville, last week, an extra span of gray horse mules for $300. His son, Jo, is now in charge of them.

Rains have come, crops are booming and farmers are smiling.

School Affairs.

The June examination for white applicants will be held at the Graded School Building on the third Friday and Saturday (19 and 20). The examination for colored applicants will be held at the Superintendent's office on the fourth Friday and Saturday (26 and 27). This will be the last examination until September. All applicants must be of unquestionably good moral character, and at least 18 years of age prior to the date of the examination. All are requested to be present by 8 o'clock on Friday morning, so as to begin as early as possible.

All the rural public schools of the county will be required to begin on Monday July 6th. This will give time for them to close before the Christmas holidays.

The Adair County Teachers' Institute will be held at the Lindsey-Wilson Building on August 10-14. Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, of Morehead, Rowan county, will be first instructor, and will be assisted by Prof. J. C. Willis, T. J. Coates and others, with the co-operation of home forces, will easily make this the best institute Adair County has ever had. Mrs. Stewart is an educational lecturer of national fame, and as an institute instructor has no superior in the State. We insist most earnestly that the trustees attend as well as the teachers.

Teachers who have not yet drawn all their pay for teaching last year will please call at once and get their checks. It has all been on hand for four months, and the time for the Superintendent to make his final settlement is drawing near.

Respectfully, Tobias Huffaker, Supt. A. C. S.

Likes the Paper.

A note from Mr. Ivan E. McDougle says:

Will you please change the address on my copy of your paper to Richmond, Ky., for the summer? I enjoy your weekly messages very much and don't like to miss a single issue. While only a citizen of your community for a short 9 months I always find news that is of interest to me.

If you ever find yourself wishing that you were in a cooler climate these early spring days just remember that even Boston, up here in New England, experienced several warm days in May this year when the thermometer stood at 95. It seems to me to be every bit as hot as Kentucky ever was.

T. E. C. Floyd Dead.

Well-known citizen dies with cancer of the stomach at Casey Creek, Ky., May 25th. Thomas Edward Clellan Floyd was a highly respected citizen, having lived in this community about 18 months. He died with cancer of the stomach. He was 65 years and 20 days old and leaves a wife and many friends to mourn their loss. Funeral services were conducted from the residence by Rev. Moxley, of this place, interment was in McWhorter cemetery where a large crowd of friends followed his remains to its last resting place.

Lime for sale. $1.25 per barrel. J. C. Miller. 23-1t

If the people of Russell county want to do business with the Adair County News, a representative of the paper will give them an opportunity if they will meet him the first two days of circuit court in Jamestown, next Monday and Tuesday.

Next Monday circuit court will open at Jamestown. The docket is not very large, but a great many yeomanry will put in an appearance the first two days.

It is reported that the brick kiln will be fired this week. The brick are for the new dormitory on Lindsey-Wilson hill.

Acres and acres have been set in tobacco in the last week. An unusually large crop will be put out in Adair county.

Messrs. W. W. Edwards and J. M. Durham, Taylor county, stock dealers, were in Adair last week, looking for cattle.

James Hughes, a colored man who lived in the Flat Woods, died last Wednesday.

If it continues to be reasonable the high cost of living will be a thing of the past.

Cards are out announcing the arrival of Lecl Bernard Moss at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moss, Greensburg, Ky., June 3rd, 1914.

The Fourth District Convention.

The Fourth District Convention of the Christian Church convened at Columbia on Friday evening before the first Sunday in June, and continued over Sunday evening, a success in every way. It was largely attended from the beginning. The four counties composing the district, Adair, Casey, Russell and Wayne were all represented except Wayne. There were present the following preachers and workers: H. W. Elliott, Secretary of State Missions; W. E. Frazee, State Bible School worker; J. S. Hilton, Superintendent of the Christian Orphans' home; J. Q. Montgomery, of Liberty, Luther Young, F. J. Barger and Tobias Huffaker. The program was carried out with the exception of the subjects assigned to C. W. Harrison, of Monticello, who was hindered from being present, on account of sickness in his family. J. Q. Montgomery's address on "How Nearly is Protestantism United," was a splendid and much enjoyed by those who heard it. Saturday morning was assigned the Bible School Session, and was largely conducted by our State Bible School worker, W. E. Frazee, who is well up on the work and gave some fine talks on the aims of the State Association. H. W. Elliott's address on "Are the Conditions of Salvation as Taught by the Christian Church Safe?" was well received. Sunday afternoon and night was given to the C. W. B. M. work conducted by Mrs. L. L. Campbell, of Lexington, and Mrs. Walden, of Danville. They had a splendid program and it was well received. Some of our women gave some good addresses. Mrs. Bob Rowe, Mrs. L. O. Taylor, Misses Mary Lucy Lowe, Kate Gill, Mrs. Rubarts and others.

Mrs. Ray Montgomery gave some beautiful solos which were enjoyed by all. Miss Kate Warriner, of Liberty, who is a niece of Mrs. T. C. Davidson, of this place, sang some beautiful solos, which contributed much to the joy of the song loving folks. The good women of the town did themselves proud in the bountiful dinners they provided for the two days Convention. The whole Convention was a feast of good things from the beginning to the close.

Report, State Equalization Board.

The total equalized value of all property in Kentucky subject to assessment by County Assessors is $364,273,393 for 1914, which is $12,102,633, higher than for 1913. This was an increase of $13,423,215 over the assessed valuation of $345,845,623. The State Board of Equalization completed its work and compiled its report.

Land assessments were increased by the board from $351,625,429 to $364,511,395; assessment of town lots from $296,970,527 to $299,306,656 and personally from $116,490,578 to $119,697,138. The dog tax amounts to $103,040, and exemptions to $80,753,649.

The report of the Board on Adair and other counties in this part of the State is as follows: Adair, as assessed, $2,610,340; as equalized, $2,806,668; amount of taxes to be paid, $14 033.

Casey, as assessed, $2,232,763; as equalized, $2,481,136; taxes on same, $12.463.

Clinton, as assessed, $1,295,901; as equalized, $1,408,833; taxes to be paid, $7.041.

Cumberland, as assessed, $3,785,051, as equalized, $1,945,105; taxes on same, $9.725.

Nell & McCandless have bought a half interest in the Columbia Bottling Company, and the business will continue to be conducted under the same name.

From now on we will buy butter. Will pay 14 cents cash this week. 32-2t. Durham & Hutchison.

Read Russell & Co.'s special sale advertised in this paper.

A Just Compliment.

We were delighted in last week's edition of your paper that you made such deserving mention of the Adair county boys who took part at the recent session of the Columbia District Conference, and think one of Adair county's girls, Mrs. A. L. Mell, (nee Lena Grissom,) who brought a great missionary address considered by many the best ever delivered in Columbia, should have some mention. Her subject—"The Conquest of Heathen Nations, the Subjugation of Latin countries, and the Redeeming of our own country."

The message was delivered in a most forceful and pathetic way, and Adair county shall be well proud of her daughter, Mrs. Mell, who holds the important position among the women of the Louisville Conference Society as Field Secretary. Critic.

Nearly a Century.

Mrs. Mary, Noel, who was ninety-six or ninety-seven years old, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. W. F. Squires, last Monday afternoon. She was born and reared in Adair county, her maiden name being Walkup. Her husband died about fifty years ago. She was a highly respected old lady and will be greatly missed in the neighborhood. She was the mother of John and Sam Noel, who live in Texas. Her daughter, Bettie, who was the wife of Mr. W. F. Squires, died many years ago.

STRAYED:—From my premises, near Rife, Ky., a dark Jersey heifer, three years old, weight about 900 pounds. Will pay for information in regard to her. B. W. Pierce, 32-1t. Rife, Ky.

Miss Sallie Price, who was a daughter of Mr. Jack Price, who lived near Milltown, was educated in the Masonic Home, Louisville. After her graduation she married Mr. W. H. Johnson, of Gratz, Ky. They lived happily together for five years, when death removed the wife, on March 16, 1913. She left a bright little daughter who was four years old the 7th of this month. She is the idol of a fond father. Mr. Johnson, writing to Mr. J. R. Tutt, Milltown, in speaking of his departed companion, says: "Sallie was a model woman, possessing the sweetest disposition. She was a devoted, loving, Christian wife."

We have some summer dress goods and Muslin that we will sell at cost. Gill & Waggener.

Chester, a fourteen year old son of Mr. James Coffey, this place, barely escaped with his life Monday afternoon. He was riding a mule, at a rapid gait, and in making the crossing between Mr. H. N. Miller's home and that of Mrs. Sarah Bradshaw, the animal fell, the boy falling under him. He was considerably hurt, but will come around all right in a few days.

Evans Bros. bought a few days ago 770 acres of land from John T. Russell, Greensburg. The land is located on Giles Ridge, Adair county. Consideration, $2,500.

Rev. L. C. Kelley, pastor of the Baptist Church, Campbellsville, will preach here the third Sunday. Rev. O. P. Bush will fill Rev. Kelley's pulpit at Campbellsville same day.

A married daughter of Mr. Peter M. Bryant, died in Illinois last Friday night. Her remains reached here Monday night, and will be interred to-day in the family grave-yard.

The petition of Hon. Rollin Hurt to have his name placed on the ballot for Appellate Judge, was filed with the Secretary of State Monday.

Miss Mary Crawford graduated from the Winchester High School last week. Her subject was "Class Prophecy."

BAPTIST SUMMER ASSEMBLY.

Georgetown, Ky., July 6-10, 1914.

The Baptist Summer Assembly will be held at Georgetown, Ky., from July 6th to July 10th inclusive. Mr. George M. Newel, Local Chairman, Georgetown, Ky., assures us that ample accommodations will be provided for all who wish to attend. He desires all those who are going to the Assembly to write at once to him for reservation. First come, first served. Please do not delay writing him.

We have arranged an excellent program. The speakers are among the best we have in the Southland. They are Field Secretary, Arthur Flake, of the B. Y. P. U. work, east of the Mississippi, Field Secretary, L. P. Leavell, of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Dr. C. B. Williams, of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, Dr. Lincoln Hulley, president Stetson University, Leland, Fla., Dr. B. D. Gray, Cor. Secy., Baptist Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga., Dr. F. D. Perkins, Cor. Secy., Kentucky Baptist Educational Society, Louisville, Ky., Dr. T. M. Hawes, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., Dr. C. M. Thompson, pastor First Baptist Church, Hopkinsville, Ky. Among others on the program are Miss Margaret A. Frost, Elementary Specialists Nashville, Tenn., Miss Kathleen Mallory, Cor. Secy., W. M. U. auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

We are putting special stress on the music this year. Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Scholfield will have charge of same. Mr. Scholfield will use "Immanuel's Praise" and desires that we have a large chorus choir to assist him. There are several other interesting features, namely "The Sunset Hour," Pastors Conference and a Musical Entertainment, B. Y. P. U. Convention on Thursday, July 9th.

For any further in this regard write to J. J. Gentry, 205 E. Chestnut, Louisville, Ky.

Cures Stubborn, Itchy Skin Troubles

"I could scratch myself to pieces" is often heard from sufferers of Eczema, Tetter, Itch and similar Skin Eruptions. Don't Scratch—Stop the Itching at once with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Its first application starts healing; the red, rough, scaly, itching skin is soothed by the Healing and Cooling Medicines. Mrs. C. A. Einfeldt, Rock Island, Ill., after using Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment writes: "This is the first time in nine years I have been free from the dreadful ailment." Olives stuffed with almonds and chopped make a delicious addition to almost any salad. Or they may be used alone on white lettuce leaves with French dressing.

The pineapple juice which comes bottled at the grocer's is useful for fruit salads, for sauces and for beverages. With mineral water it makes a delicious drink.

BAPTIST WORKER'S ASSEMBLY.

Dawson Springs, Ky., June 28 to July 3, 1914.

For four years the Baptist of West Kentucky, and other section of the state have met together at Dawson Springs to listen to "the great Baptist leaders of the South." This meeting has grown in interest till last year it reached the high water mark and over five hundred people assembled to hear these great men.

The date of the meeting this year is June 28 to the 3rd of July, and it is hoped that at least one thousand people will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend. Every effort has been put forth to make this meeting not only the equal of last year; but, if possible, to surpass it. With such as Mrs. Kate Hinkle, Miss Leachman and Miss Brenckman to represent W. M. U. work, Rev. Harvey Beauchamp, N. T. Barnes and Miss Brenckman for S. S. work, Mr. Arthur Flake and Mr. N. T. Barnes for B. Y. P. U. work, as well as our own Drs. Powell and Perkins of Ky., and Dr. C. B. Williams, Mr. H. Z. Duke and Dr. J. B. Gambrell, of Texas, who will represent other Baptist interests, we have no sense of failure in reaching this high standard.

In addition to the above attraction, we have secured Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield, the Gospel Singers, so well known in the South, to lead the music.

At this time rates will be obtained at the hotels and also on the Rail Roads, making the opportunity a splendid one to enjoy the healing waters of Dawson Springs and the many advantages of the Assembly. Certainly every Baptist Pastor and Superintendent in West Kentucky should attend and bring large delegations of their people. Every phase of denominational work will be discussed.

From this Assembly we are sure that great good will come to all organizations represented. Brethren, decide at once to come and make your plans accordingly. The following hotels have been kind enough to entertain our speakers and to give special rates.

The New Pistol Bill.

Below will be found the law in full enacted by the last Legislature relative to carrying concealed deadly weapons: Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:—

Section 1. That section 1309, Kentucky Statutes, Carroll's Edition of 1909 be stricken out, and in lieu thereof the following section be enacted:

Section 1309. If any person shall carry concealed a deadly weapon upon or about his person, other than an ordinary pocket knife, such person shall upon conviction be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars and imprisoned in the county jail for not less than ten or more than forty days in the discretion of the court or jury in trying the case. If, upon the expiration of the time in which the judgment of conviction could be superceded, no supersedeas bond has been executed, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court rendering the judgment to at once issue and cause to be placed in the hands of the proper officer for execution a capias pro fine, and it shall be the duty of said officer to execute at once said writ. If the officer in whose hands said capias pro fine shall come for execution, fail or refuse to perform the duties herein prescribed upon conviction therefor he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

The offense of carrying concealed deadly weapons denounced in this statute is hereby declared a high misdemeanor, and any person convicted under this statute of the offense of carrying concealed upon his person a deadly weapon, shall be disfranchised and such conviction shall operate to exclude such person from the right of suffrage for the period of two years from the date thereof. Any person convicted a second time under this statute shall be confined in the penitentiary for a period not less than one or more than five years.

Whip Behind!

A good story of Sir Francis Bertie is told by a French diplomatist, who set out to pay a call at the British embassy in Paris.

As he drove up to the door he was horrified to see Sir Francis running down the street as hard as he could go, shouting and frantically waving an umbrella.

Fearing that there had been an anarchist outrage or something equally dreadful, the diplomatist prepared to join in the chase. but the explanation of Sir

Francis' excitement was quite simple and not at all murderous.

Lady Bertie had just set out for a drive. After she left, Sir Francis had noticed one or two "street Arabs" clinging to the back of the carriage and had promptly started off in pursuit with the idea of dislodging them from their dangerous position.

Take Pichty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Guerrilla Warfare.

Mexicans are daring fighters, utterly merciless and prepared to defend themselves against hundreds of thousands of men according to Wylie Smith, who for the past two years has been fighting with the rebel forces. Smith declares that the Mexican climate is such that white men would wither under the intense heat, and that in case of war with Mexico the Mexicans would take to the mountains, where artillery cannot penetrate and where men on foot must pick their way.

Reaching down into Western Mexico are the Sierre Madre mountains, which are a continuation of the Rocky Mountains. They rise in broken and high peaks in the States of Sonora, Chihuahua, Durango, Sinalloa and Guerrero. It is in these mountains Mr. Smith declares the Mexicans would seek to lure American troops and slaughter them.

During a let-up in the fighting in Mexico recently, Smith sought out Gen. Zapata, who is partly Guerro Indian, in his mountain fastness near the Pacific coast. He had 3,500 men encamped in a place in the mountains that made a perfect dipper. There was only one way of getting in and out and that was a passageway less than 50 feet wide. Smith declares Zapata had machine guns on this mountain and that with his 3,500 men could have held back an army of 100,000.

"I don't see how an army could have attacked that fellow in that dipper," says Smith, "except with airships." Smith points out that this is only one of many natural traps of similar type in Mexico.

To illustrate the marksmanship of Mexicans, Mr. Smith states that he was detailed at one time to pick out sharp shooters. Of 100 men tested on a mark 1,000 yards away, one scored 70 per cent., and none went lower than 30 per cent. He recalls that soon after this selection was made his men attacked a small town as a ruse to call forth the federals. Three hundred men

Glad to Live.

More than a year ago, Mrs. William L. Squier, wife of a retired Presbyterian minister, formerly of Iola, Kan., lay on a cot in an unfinished bungalow at Alco, N. J., and begged to be put to death that her misery might be ended. She sent a thrill of pity throughout the country by appealing for a law that would give death to hopeless sufferers. At that time she was suffering from intestinal troubles which physicians and surgeons declared incurable.

To-day that same woman is pronounced by one of the leading physicians of Philadelphia as cured of the malady from which at one time there seemed no hope of recovery. And now from the same lips that made the pathetic appeal for legalized death comes the statement that she believes her recovery is a sign from the infinite that humanity must not give up hope. She believes she was kept alive for a purpose and she is now glad to live.

SQUIER FAMILY NOW HAPPY.

At the time Mrs. Squier was found in the Alco bungalow she and her husband were in financial straits. Mr. Squier was losing his sight, and he and his wife were alone in the bungalow, a dying woman and blind man.

The story of their unhappiness put them in touch with kindness. A noted Philadelphia physician became interested in the woman, caused her to be removed to a hospital, operated on her intestinal tract and brought about her recovery. Debts were paid. Relatives and friends came forward and helped finish the bungalow and prosperity smiled in at the cherry window.

Fifth Sunday Meeting.

The Fifth Sunday Meeting for the Eastern Division of the Russell Creek Association was held at Mt. Gilead church, Green county, May 30th and 31st, 1914.

Called to order at 9:30, May 29th, by Pastor O. P. Bush.

Devotional exercises by Rev. W. S. Dudgeon.

Rev. W. S. Dudgeon was elected Moderator and Rev. Murrett Shively Clerk.

Subject of Inefficiency of the church without a Sunday-School, was discussed by H. S. Robinson.

A most sumptuous dinner was then served on the ground and the social feature was also most enjoyable.

After dinner a strong and forcible sermon was preached on missions by Rev. S. P. Stapp.

Missions the aim of the church was then discussed by Rev. Murrett Shively.

Tithing was next presented by Rev. C. Turner, subject—God, Society, and Man.

Administering one estate for God was next presented by Rev. O. P. Bush.

Tithing by Rev. W. S. Dudgeon.

SUNDAY MORNING.

Devotional exercises conducted by Rev. O. P. Bush.

Training for service by Rev. H. N. Phillips.

Sermon by Rev. C. Turner—“Healing the Leper.”

The session was well attended and was a most profitable and enjoyable meeting.

Next session will be held with Charity church, Adair county, August 29th and 30th.

Revs. W. S. Dudgeon, H. N. Phillips and O. P. Bush committee on program for next meeting.

Vote of thanks to the members of the Mt. Gilead church for their hospitable entertainment.

Ordered that proceedings of this meeting be furnished the Russell Creek Baptist and the Adair County News for publication.

Mt. Gilead church is situated on historic grounds. It was there that the “Long Hunters” established their camp in July, 1770. This party was headed by Col. James Knox, (see Allen's history of Kentucky, page 144.) Here they built a house which they filled with the skins of the animals they killed. These became ruined and from it the name of the branch as “Skinhouse Branch.”

Mt. Gilead Baptist church was gathered in 1801 by Rev. Elijah Summers. It united with the Green River Association in that year. In 1802 it reported 37 baptisms and a membership of 86.

It was the largest of the eleven churches that went in to organize the Russell Creek Association when it was organized in Sept. 1804, and is one of the fourth of said original churches that is still in the bounds of the Russell Creek Association. Rev. Elijah

Summers was the pastor from the organization of the church until 1805 when Rev. Isaac Hodgen, one of the members, was ordained and called to its pastor which he filled with extraordinary success and ability from that time until his death. (For life of Rev. Isaac Hodgen see Allen's history of Kentucky, page 378.)

Mt. Gilead church was the first to call the Rev. Henry McDonald to its pastorate. No greater preacher nor any that was more beloved has ever been in Kentucky than was Henry McDonald, as will be universally attested by all the older people who knew him.

In 1840 when the first executive board of the Russell Creek Association was appointed, three of its five members were members of the Mt. Gilead church, viz Rev. Zachariah Wooley, Robt. Ball, and Wm. G. Anderson.

Mechanical Horse.

A real “mechanical horse” is being experimented with abroad. It is a “tractor” that is easily hitched to any horse-drawn vehicle, just as a team of horses may be, and combines all the advantages of the horse with those of the auto truck at an exceedingly low price. The outfit comprises a steel bar and coupler and sprocket wheels designed to be attached to the wheels and tongue of the wagon. There is only one wheel on the “horse” and that is at the front, the most of the support for the tractor depending upon the front wagon wheels by which it is driven. The engine mounted under the front hood as in an automobile, is 40 or 50 horse power and drives the wagon at a speed of from 8 to 30 miles an hour, the latter speed only being used when it is designated for fire engine service. The front wheel is used to steer by and it allows a turn being made at an angle of 45 degrees thus giving remarkable turning ability in narrow streets. One of the greatest advantages of the “mechanical horse” is the fact that it may be kept constantly at work while unloading or loading is going on.

Finds Mother at Last.

A long and patient search for a mother she never knew ended a few days ago for Mrs. Hattie Leavitt Warrington Terrell, of Morrisville, Pa., when she located the missing parent in Providence, R. I. The mother and daughter met for the first time in 134 years in the Grand Central station in New York city and are now in Morrisville, where they declare they are spending the happiest days of their lives.

Mrs. Terrill was kidnaped 34 years ago by her father. She was adopted and reared by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warrington, of Fallsington, Mass. Later she became the wife of Nicholas Terrell, a telegraph operator, and now she is a mother. During the past third of a century she has longed for her mother, not knowing whether she was dead or living.

Mrs. Terrell was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leavitt and was born in Roxbury, Mass., July 31, 1878, as she learned just recently. Her father was a railroad worker and of a roving disposition. He never stayed long enough in one place to call it home. After the birth of his daughter he abandoned his wife and child. Later he returned kidnaped the baby from the house of its grandparents and had it adopted by the Warrington family.

Hattie Warrington, as she was known to her playmates, learned from school-children that she was not the child of the Warrington family, and from that time forward she longed to know if mother were still living. Mrs. Leavitt, it appears, found a position after she had been deserted, and later became the wife of Henry Simmons, of Providence. She, too, was eager for her child, but could find no trace of her.

LETTER BRINGS TWO TOGETHER.

Several weeks ago the postmaster, of Morrisville, Pa., received a letter from an aunt of Mrs. Terrell asking if anything was known in that community of Hattie Leavitt or Warrington. This gave the clew that brought about the happy culmination of a search that had lasted nearly a third of a century.

By correspondence the mother and daughter agreed to meet at the Grand Central station in New York on a given day, the daughter to wear a red and the mother a blue ribbon tied in a bow. They met but were in each other's arms before they even looked for the marks of identification.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

We are authorized to announce ROLLIN HURT a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the Third district, subject to the action of the Democratic voters, expressed at the August primary.

It is generally understood that Hon. Harvey Helm will be a candidate for re-election but so far he has not so announced. As usual efforts to bring out an opposing candidate have been made but up to date no one found who is willing to make the race. The News is not under obligation to Mr. Helm neither he to The News but the facts, as we see them, would make it a difficult matter to defeat him. True, he did not vote on the popular side for the repeal of the Coast-wise proposition—an administration measure and one we believe to be Democratic, but be that as it may, there are two sides to every question and his position was one that took conviction and courage to maintain. We have never admired a man who did not have the courage to stand for honest convictions or one who would float with the current all the time. Mr. Helm is a worker and has a record as a substantial business man in the Governmental affairs.

A dispatch from Washington, dated the 6th, says: A new crisis in the Mexican situation developed late tonight when two Mexican Federal gunboats closely trailed by two American war craft, the cruiser Tacoma and Gunboat Sacramento, steamed from Puerto Mexico for Tampico to enforce a blockade of that port decreed by Gen. Huerta. No specific orders have been given, the American commanders merely having instructions to keep the Mexican boats under surveillance, but it is known that Rear Admiral Badger has been advised that the United States Government regards Tampico as an open port and desires that there be no interference with commerce there. Notice of Gen. Huerta's decree was given formally to Secretary Bryan earlier in the night by Senor Riano, the Spanish Ambassador, who represents the Huerta Government here. This was followed by a conference of Administration officials, but nothing was known of the result, and even the fact that the notice had been was not made public.

Mr. W. R. Belknap, who was at the head of the Belknap Hardware Company, Louisville, and one of the most prominent men in his home city, died last week. He was a philanthropist, a Christian gentleman, and recently gave $25,000 to the Young Men's Christian Association.

The efforts being made by the Republicans to bring back the Progressives, so far, have failed. They seem to be unmanageable in Pennsylvania, to have conviction and purpose amply strong to maintain and defend their position and no inclination to again to become a part of the G. O. P. Likewise in Kentucky every move made by the regulars have been promptly rejected.

There is no longer a doubt as to Governor McCreary's intentions. He has filed his petition with the Secretary of State, asking that his name be placed on the ballot for United States Senate. Before this action many believed that he would not remain in the race. If he knows where his strength lies, he is wiser than the Democrats in this part of the State.

Mr. W. S. Fitzgerald, of Danville, an enthusiastic Beckham supporter, was in Columbia last Thursday. In talking to a News man, he stated that in the last few months he had been in one hundred and ten counties in Kentucky, conversed with a great many leading Democrats, and that he was satisfied that Mr. Beckham would carry the State overwhelmingly.

It is said that Frank Taylor, of Glasgow, will undoubtedly be nominated by the Republicans in the Third district for Congress.

Mr. Beckham has opened headquarters at the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville. Mr. R. G. Phillips, of Elizabethtown, is in charge.

DEMANDS LEGISLATION.

The price Provisional President Huerta demands for his retirement is the legalization of his official acts since his appointment to the provisional presidency, according to advices from the capital to-day. This is said to have been the proposal Gen. Huerta authorized his delegates to offer at the mediation conference at Niagara Falls.

Gen. Huerta is said to realize that he has only a slim chance of winning out, but he is understood to be determined not to abandon power without adequate provision being made for the protection of his own future and for that of the men with whom he has surrounded himself.

The Constitutionals, it is said, have insisted that no act of Gen. Huerta's administration ever shall be regarded as legal and in this case Gen. Huerta foresees enormous financial losses for those who joined in the flotation of his loans as well as personal risk for the members of Cabinet, for the new Congressmen installed in place of those whom he imprisoned and for thousands of minor officials and even private citizens who willingly or unwillingly aided his Government.

Selected at Federal Reserve Bank Director.

St. Louis, June 7th—Wirt Wright, president of the National Stock Yards National Bank, is the nominee of the Group Three, or country, banks as director of the New St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank. Mr. Wright was literally born into the banking business, starting his career under the tutelage of his father, C. F. Wright, Cashier of the Lake County National Bank at Liberty-ville, Ill. Mr. Wright has long been in close touch with agricultural and live stock conditions throughout the Middle West and it is this fact that has caused the Group Three or country bankers to place him in nomination for Federal Reserve Bank Director. Mr. Wright is keenly alive to the opportunities for the agricultural advancement of this territory and his selection as Federal Reserve Bank Director will mean much for the Middle West and South.

Well as the automobile has at last reached Russell county, why don't some one start a good roads movement? We believe a little gossip would help the cause.

Mr. Abe Dowell, a prosperous farmer of the community, is having an up-to-date barn built. Mr. M. L. Owens is the contractor. Mr. Owens has also just completed a residence for Uncle Dennis Allen.

Miss Vertie Coffey and Miss May Snow spent last week visiting on Cumbersand river.

Bad roads cost the American people millions of dollars annually. The average cost of hauling one ton over one mile of American road is said to be 24 cents as against 12 cents per ton mile in Europe. The American people should get busy.

While there will likely be a lot of "Moose hunting" in the United States in season, yet the four-legged kind up in Alaska, have been covered by an order of the federal government restricting killing until April 1st, 1916. Big game hunting has lured thousands of rich young men into the grip of the Arctic. It was one of these—Harry Payne Whitney, who furnished Dr. Frederick A. Cook his grubstake, enabling the latter to present the American people with what looked like a pole to him, and a gold brick to Peary. The action of the government in protecting moose is important, and it is a pity such measures were not applied to the preservation of the buffalo, pigeon and seals, which were routed from land and sea.

BAPTIST WORKER'S ASSEMBLY.

Dawson Springs, Ky.—June 28 to July 3, 1914.

For four years the Baptist of West Kentucky, and other section of the state have met together at Dawson Springs to listen to "the great Baptist leaders of the South." This meeting has grown in interest till last year it reached the high water mark and over five hundred people assembled to hear these great men.

The date of the meeting this year is June 28 to the 3rd of July, and it is hoped that at least one thousand people will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend. Every effort has been put forth to make this meeting not only the equal of last year; but, if possible, to surpass it. With such as Mrs. Kate Hinkle, Miss Leachman and Miss Brenckman to represent W. M. U. work, Rev. Harvey Beauchamp, N. T. Barnes and Miss Brenckman for S. S.

work, Mr. Arthur Flake and Mr. N. T. Barnes for B. Y. P. U. work, as well as our own Drs. Powell and Perkins of Ky., and Dr. C. B. Williams, Mr. H. Z. Duke and Dr. J. B. Gambrell, of Texas, who will represent other Baptist interests, we have no sense of failure in reaching this high standard.

In addition to the above attraction, we have secured Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield, the Gospel Singers, so well known in the South, to lead the music.

At this time rates will be obtained at the hotels and also on the Rail Roads, making the opportunity a splendid one to enjoy the healing waters of Dawson Springs and the many advantages of the Assembly. Certainly every Baptist Pastor and Superintendent in West Kentucky should attend and bring large delegations of their people. Every phase of denominational work will be discussed.

From this Assembly we are sure that great good will come to all organizations represented. Brethren, decide at once to come and make your plans accordingly. The following hotels have been kind enough to entertain our speakers and to give special rates.

Jamestown.

I promised to write up some history of Oklahoma. Now if you will keep your papers you will have a good history of Oklahoma.

The history of Oklahoma, like that of all the States begins with the brown man—called the red man by history, or Indian. While there was much to prove that the first inhabitants of North America were people of much higher civilization than the Indians, yet the earliest discoverers and explorers found only the Brown man, or American, in possession of this vast continent.

It is interesting to know that while North America had an area of more than nine million square miles, yet there were not more than one million Indians living there when Columbus first saw it. When the first travelers entered what is now Oklahoma, they found it sparsely inhabited by something like ten tribes of Indians.

The Red man of the plains was the same as the Red man of the forest. He built no churches, school houses or cities, and few if any, fixed homes. Following foot paths, with stars and winds his guide, he did not desire roads or routes of commerce. He made no advancement because he was alone in a great continent, surrounded by waters which separated him from other races of men. It is contact and exchange of opinions which have made men progressive.

The Oklahoma Indian had no fixed home, and domestic life was unknown to him. The horse and cow became his helpers only after contact with the Spaniards. The squaws built the wigwams, kindled the fires and carried the burdens. It was the women of the tribes who burned the brush and trees to clear the land, planted the corn in furrows made by crooked sticks or clam shells, made clothing by dressing skins of wild animals, killed in the chase by the Indian braves.

In war the Indian showed bravery, cunning and cruelty.

His endurance was equal to the Spartans of old, who gloried in doing without shelter in severest weather, in bearing the most horrible tortures, without a sign of suffering, and in facing death with perfect dignity.

The race had a religion which dreamed of a land of happy hunting ground, where gay feasts of buffalo could be found, and the faithful dog would join in the dance. The Indian saw God in the morning sun, in the haze above the purple mountain or in the star which kept watch above his peepers through the night. He believed that nature had power to help or hurt him, and this made him respectful and kind when least expected.

A just tribute to the Indian.—These are some of the traits of the race which struggled with the white man in Oklahoma for supremacy. If it is true that we are a part of all we meet, we are, as Oklahomans, a part of the North American Indians. Here this race was found by the Anglo-Saxon on his journeys in search of fame and conquest. Here, more than in any other state, the Indians have reached his brightest development. The first governor of Oklahoma, on his first day of statehood, called attention to the fact that Oklahoma was the first state to give the Indians equal honor and strength with the Anglo-Saxon in making its constitution. In the light of these facts, every Oklahoman should study with great care this extraordinary people, whom a great writer has pointed out in this language:—The Indian is our only American poet. His every expression is poetic imaginative. He lives a poetic life, wandering, communing with Beauty, the elements his fancy.

Every natural element becomes defined and personified to him. His is a world of what, to us, are dreams and unrealities. You cannot astonish him with any invention. His dignity allows no spontaneous show of surprise or appreciation at anything that a white man has done or can do. Aloof, stolid, solemn, serene separate, swift of foot, untiring fit inhabitant for a primeval world, the North American Indian is gliding silently into the Western twilight.

Additional Locals.

The Devil Laughs.

Old Hell's Delight—that is Emmeline Pankhurst—is getting in her work apace. Murder in her "Third Degree." Having perfected her dupes in the gentle arts of Riot and Arson, this she-devil of Destruction inevitably addresses herself to the pleasant crime of killing. She must have blood.

Can this be the self-same Emmeline Pankhurst who was brought here to Louisville, flattered and petted, and represented as the very type and embodiment of glorious womanhood. Yea, verily, the same! And, because the Courier-Journal refused to take her at her face value—not to mention her money-grubbing requirements—the group of local women behind her were ready to rend it. What do they think of their idol now?

One may well apprehend that the women at the head of the feminist agitation in the East are no better. Indeed their richest, most important and influential leader has served notice and boldly threatened Pankhurst proceedings unless suffrage is granted inside the coming two years.

"Down with the man-made world," is the cry of feminism in England. "Out with the man-written Bible and the man-made church; every woman to pick the father of her child, and just as many children and fathers as she elects; free sex; free love; and to the devil with religion."

That is the platform of feminism not alone in England, but on the Continent, and it only wants a little more agitation in America to set its banners here floating on the breeze.

Meanwhile, reasonable men do not oppose the franchise for women in cases where she contributes to the public revenues—no taxation without representation—and in all questions relating to the Schools, to the Charities and the Corrections. Reasonable men would keep women out of the bull ring of politics as out of the sporting prize ring. They do not want woman to unsex herself; first because she shouldn't second, because she can't. She may debase herself, like the poor, insane victims of Emmeline Pankhurst. She may get down into the dreadful corruption and dirt of the party strife. She may make herself a scourge. But ever and ever she will remain what God and Nature intended her to be, a woman; a wife and mother, to bear and rear the children; to moderate, humanize and civilize the men; to make on earth one place of refuge—one seat of repose—one shrine of love and duty, which men may come to and call home.

It is full time that the good, thoughtful and responsible women of the South—of Kentucky—of Louisville began seriously to consider where these wild women of England, and their more intelligent and astute but equally wicked and sinister sisters in America, are leading them. The pretense of "votes for women" is but an entering wedge. It is a subterfuge. They proclaim suffrage only as an outpost. When they have carried it, the real purpose of annihilating all existing institutions as man-made and therefore unfair to women will begin in earnest.

That, which it is sincerely believed, is the emanation of soured women, of mistaken women, of women who have failed in their domestic life. They are dissatisfied. They know not just what hurts them, and they seek a change. Thus they become the followers of the self-exploiting, mercenary ambitious and vain women, who, like Emmeline, have made feminism the business of their lives, and again like Old Hell's Delight, are making a mighty good thing out of it.—Courier-Journal.

Business Depression Evil Magnified, Says Redfield.

We publish the following which appeared in the Courier-Journal of the 5th which shows prevailing conditions throughout the country. Some sections are prosperous while others are depressed. A part of this may be due to gain political advantage as stated, but to our mind is largely due to crop failure of last year.

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield, in a speech here today before the Chamber of Commerce discussed business conditions throughout the country. In part he said: "If we would place the business atmosphere of the country on a sort of commercial weather map such as is used by the Weather Service we should find a curious condition. In the extreme South-east and South-west would be areas where the business barometer is high. All through the great central part of the country, where the bulk of our wheat is grown, would be another great area of fair weather and high pressure. Over the great cotton areas of the South would be no depression, not even unsettled conditions, but a normal looking for great agricultural favors expected to come.

Pre-Inventory Sale.

BEGINNING Monday morning June 15, and ending Saturday night June 20, we will give to Cash buyers 10% discount on all purchases. Our goods are marked in plain figures, and prices are the same to everybody. We are making this division of our profit with you to induce more Cash Sales, and reduce our stock preparatory to taking our annual inventory the week following. This reduction applies to every article of merchandise in the store. You will miss bargains if you do not take advantage of this sale.

High barometer also prevails where automobiles are made, in and about the lake region. Over the North-eastern States would be found a section of low barometer and marked depression. If the state of mind of the different parts of our country could be shaded in colors, the great body of the West would be white, while an area of dull gray would represent our North-eastern States.

"If you and I get away from the crowded centers of our Middle and Eastern States, where mental mourning exists for conditions that can never return, since the day of mastery is over and commerce must henceforth be a servant—if, I say, we get away from these centers into which the light is breaking, but which it has not yet fully illuminated, we shall find a different atmosphere. From far-off California and from Florida; from the fields of Oklahoma and Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska comes the glad cry of a harvest all but ripe for the sickle. There was no mourning in the orange groves of California when I saw them in March, and Florida utters no cry of distress in sending 23,000 carloads of her fruit to market.

"It is a small and pitiful thing that men should expect to reap political profit out of magnifying evils. However, the too willing howls of the apostles of evil are so obvious as well as so previous as to be on the whole more humorous than harmful. They make the judicious grieve, but they bring no anxiety to the thoughtful."

BAPTIST SUMMER ASSEMBLY.

Georgetown, Ky., July 6-10, 1914.

The Baptist Summer Assembly will be held at Georgetown, Ky., from July 6th to July 10th inclusive. Mr. George M. Newel, Local Chairman, Georgetown, Ky., assures us that ample accommodations will be provided for all who wish to attend. He desires all those who are going to the Assembly to write at once to him for reservation. First come, first served. Please do not delay writing him.

We have arranged an excellent program. The speakers are among the best we have in the Southland. They are Field Secretary, Arthur Flake, of the B. Y. P. U. work, east of the Mississippi, Field Secretary, L. P. Leavell, of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Dr. C. B. Williams, of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, Dr. Lincoln Hulley, President Stetson University, Leland, Fla., Dr. B. D. Gray, Cor. Secy., Baptist Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga., Dr. F. D. Perkins, Cor. Secy., Kentucky Baptist Educational Society, Louisville, Ky., Dr. T. M. Hawes, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. C. M. Thompson, pastor First Baptist Church, Hopkinsville, Ky. Among others on the program are Miss Margaret A. Frost, Elementary Specialists Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Kathleen Mallory, Cor. Secy., W. M. U. auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

We are putting special stress on the music this year. Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Scholfield will have charge of same. Mr. Scholfield will use "Immanuel's Praise" and desires that we have a large chorus choir to assist him. There are several other interesting features, namely "The Sunset Hour," Pastors Conference and Things Worth Heeding.

Yes, justice is blind, but it's the other feller's lawyer that has his eyes open.

I am not an alarmist, but I wish to say that the world is certainly growing better. My last ton of coal weighed 1,900 pounds.

Man brings most of his troubles upon himself. If he will stand up in a street car and ask if any one really believes that Dr. Cook discovered the North pole he must be prepared to take what's coming to him.

I have given it up. I argued for half a day and finally convinced a man that there is a hereafter, but that night he stole a horse and made off. After being arrested he explained that he didn't want to hoof it around when he got up there.

While I was at a poker club one night someone raided my hen coop and stole six of my chickens. Deacon Darby said it was a judgment upon me. The next night I attended a prayer meeting, and some one else came and stole the rest of my flock. This time Deacon Darby simply said—um! I don't say that it's an even thing between poker and a prayer meeting, but not a hen has ever returned.

When I had a carbuncle on the neck and the doctor told me that at least 5,000,000,000,000 men had lived and died since the time of Adam I was quite consoled. I realized that a dozen or two out of that number must have got it in the neck.

"You are an honest man!" I said to Farmer Jones when he heaped the measure up.

"Farmer Jones, you are a rascal!" I said when I got home and found a false bottom in the measure by which he had beaten me by two quarts.

I then had to steal his ax to get even.

There is no language spoken on earth without it contains at least 15 swearwords, and some 40 or 50. The men of old knew what would be needed by the later comers, and provided for it. If the man driving oxen couldn't yell, "By heck!" what would he do?—In Grit.

Coughs and Colds Weaken the System.

Continued Coughs, Colds and Bronchial troubles are depressing and weaken the system. Loss of weight and appetite generally follow. Get a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery today. It will stop your cough. The first dose helps. The best medicine for Stubborn Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Mr. O. H. What has become of the old-fashioned men who were going to have John D. Rockefeller working as a hired man after they had raised enough Belgian hares or squabs?

A pair of tan shoes and a doll-faced bride can beat anything else in the world at showing age rapidly.

Luke McLuke Says.

Some men are always either getting on a bun or getting over one.

There are not many sure things in this world. But after an ice-man has been invading kitchens for a year you can bet that it would take more than a slit skirt to shock him.

The fact that it isn't ladylike to use cuss words doesn't help mother's feelings much when father spills the gravy dish all over a bran-new table cloth.

A whole lot of actresses look like circus horses. But you can always compliment a woman by telling her that she looks like an actress.

A man worships what he can't understand. That's the reason he is a cinch for a woman.

The reason why a 1913 June bridegroom is a hero to his bride in March 1914, is because the catfish crawls out of the river every night and catches sparrows on the telephone wires.

After you have seen the same girl wearing the same exaggerated slit skirt about a dozen times you get the impression that she is always wearing the same old stocking.

Any expert judge of whisky will always pronounce your brand the best as long as you are doing the purchasing.

A lot of the fellows who are wearing big blackrimmed glasses would look better if they didn't wear their finger nails that way.

Any mother can tell you that her boy learns to swear from the Other Children in the neighborhood.

Now the diaphanous skirts are on the job and a whole lot of family skeletons come to light.

Take Care of Your Watch.

Some men think a woman's watch is a joke because it never shows the correct time.

Here are a few rules that women should commit to memory:

Wind a watch at nearly the same time each day. It is just as bad to wind too often as to let a watch run down.

Do not carry a watch in bag or purse. If you cannot wear it outside your gown, fasten it to your corset inside your blouse.

Don't bang a watch down on table or bureau. If you will put it on its back, see it has a soft berth. Far better hang a watch when not in use. Fascinating watch stands with convenient hooks are now sold for this purpose. They are ornamental and lengthen the life of your watch.

Do not subject your watch to intense heat or freezing. It is injurious, though the works are of the best.

Do not attempt to clean your own watch. When it is dirty or needs regulating send it to the jeweler. And be sure you find one who understands the mechanism of watches. There is as big a difference between watch repairers as there is in doctors, and not all can cure.

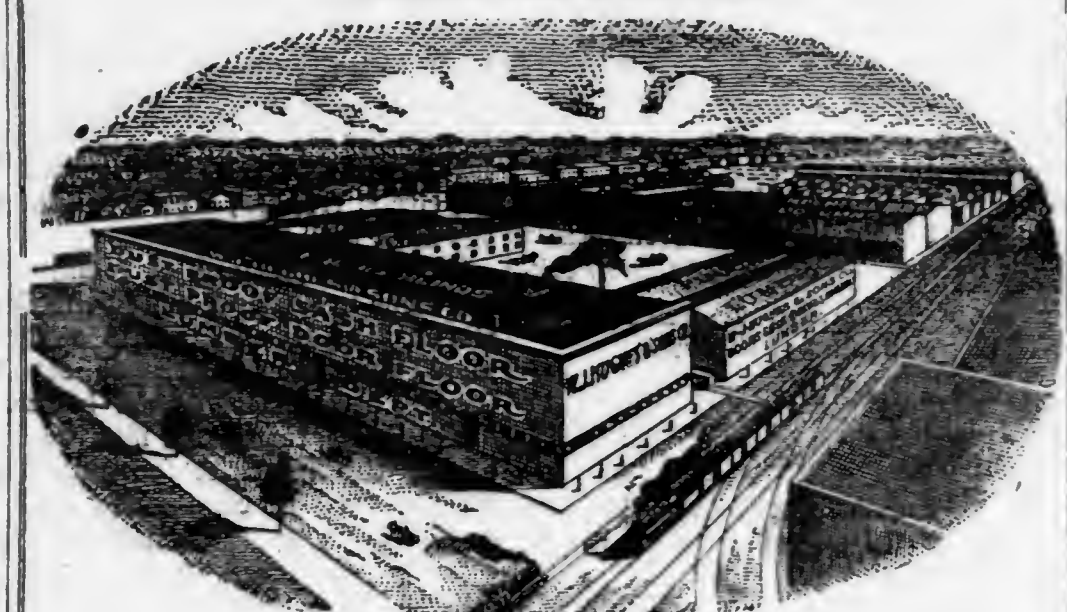

The Perfect Laxative For Elderly People

Age has its attractions no less than youth in a more serene and quieter life. But it is this very life of rest without sufficient exercise that brings with it those disorders that arise from inactivity. Chief of these are a chronic, persistent constipation. Most elderly people are troubled in this way, with accompanying symptoms of belching, drowsiness after eating, headaches and general lassitude. Frequently there is difficulty of digesting even light food. Much mental trouble ensues, as it is hard to find a suitable remedy. First of all the advice may be given that elderly people should not use salts, cathartic pills or powders, waters or any of the more violent purgatives. What they need, women as well as men, is a mild laxative tonic, one that is pleasant to take and yet acts without stripping. The remedy that fills all these requirements, and has in addition tonic properties that strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of elderly people use, to the exclusion of all other remedies. Trustworthy people like A. B. Tigrett, Oaklawn Farm, Newbern, Tenn., and Mrs. Lizzie S. Brooks, Paris, Ky., say they take it at regular intervals and in that way not only maintain general good health, but that they have not in years felt as good as they do now. You will do well to always have a bottle of it in the house. It is good for all the family. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Of Interest to Farmers.

The average prices of live stock on the Chicago market last week as compiled by Drovers' Journal were: Cattle, $8.40; hogs $8.40; sheep, $5.70; and lambs, $8.25. On the corresponding week of last year the averages were: Cattle, $8.10; hogs, $8.50; sheep, $6.05; and lambs $7.85.

The War Department has accepted the bid of an East St. Louis, Ill., commission firm to furnish 995 horses for the cavalry and artillery. The prices range from $161 to $165 a head, and the total price will be about $165,000. Bids for 250 mules at $200 to $260, submitted by an East St. Louis firm, were rejected because the prices were deemed too high.

A good ration for a horse that is troubled with indigestion is mixed as follows: Ground oats and corn, five pounds each; four ounces of oil meal, two ounces of salt, a desert spoonful of powdered gentian and a small teaspoonful of dried sulphate of iron. If the animal refuses the ration a little starvation will make him taste it when his dislike will cease. Begin with a small quantity of this ration for each meal and increase it gradually until a full ration is being fed.

The Secretary of Agriculture has issued a call for a public conference interested in the sheep and wool industry, to be held in Washington, June 2, 3 and 4. Among the topics suggested by the Secretary for discussion are the manufacturing value of American wools, the improvement of farm and ranch methods of handling wools; the possible adaptation of foreign methods to American conditions; the standardization of the wool clip, and the prevention of damage by dogs and predatory animals.

Announcement of the dispatch of mules to Mexico does not impress the imagination like a dispatch of warships. One dreadnought carries more of pomp and circumstance than does any number of mules: yet, in Mexico is the mule the more important war maker of the two.

If the campaign opens widely and our troops leave the cities by the sea to enter upon the mountain-climbing marches toward Mexico, it will be the mule that will carry the munitions and the howitzers and the baggage. He will tread with safety the narrow trails along the side of precipices, he will drag the heavy guns up the steep heights, he will share in the battle and then he will haul the wounded to the hospitals.

Along the frontiers of the world, wherever there is a war there is demand for the mule. Compared with him the much-vaunted war-horse is a vanishing figment of the past. His strength, his sureness of foot, his wariness of eye, his ability to endure hardships and hard work on little food and with little care, have made him invaluable as a campaigner, whether in deserts or mountains.

The mule has seen the camel and the elephant disappear from armies. He may see the horse vanish. He has seen the motorcycle and the motor car come in. He may see the aeroplane numbered by thousands. But it is not likely he will ever see himself superseded in his own line of work. There may be mules without war, but probably never a war without mules.

Paid Tribute to Laughter.

The value of a good-natured laugh may be rated low by some people; but many writers have attested its worth in no measured terms.

It is not surprising that Chas. Lamb could have said, "A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market," but from the lips of the somber Carlyle one is scarcely prepared to hear, "No man who has once heartily and wholly laughed can be altogether or irreclaimably bad."

It was Douglas Jerrold who boldly stated that, "What was talked of as the golden chain of Love was nothing more than a succession of laughs, a chromatic scale of merriment reaching from earth to Olympus."

"I am persuaded," wrote

Laurence Sterne, "that every time a man smiles but much more so when he laughs—it adds something to his fragment of life."

Last of all may be cited the verdict of Oliver Wendell Holmes given with his own inimitable humor, "The riotous tumult of a laugh, I take it, is the mob law the features, and propriety the magistrates who reads the riot act."—The Sunday Magazine.

Speech That Won the Girl

J. B. McGhee of Roswell, N. M., writes to tell of a negro girl who had two "cullud" suitors, says the Kansas City Star. One was a hard working negro who always had a job, but was a little short on style. The other never worked, but wore fine clothes and adorned the street corners, and was without money most of the time. Both wanted to marry the girl and she, although strongly in favor of style herself, had a strong hankering after the one with a steady job. So she decided she would invite them both to dinner, wait on them herself, and the one who had the best manners she would accept. Accordingly they came to dinner.

She first waited on Jim, the hard working negro, and said: "Have sugar and cream in your coffee, Mr. Jim?" "Cream only, if you please, ma'am," replied Jim.

Then to the stylish suitor 'Have sugar and cream in your coffee, Mr. Sambo?' "Both if you please, Miss Dinah," said Sambo, and he added: "Miss Dinah, you knows de homojonah, rajikal, tragical, incomprehensible, compound extract of de root-a toot-toot ob de sugar, mixed wid de double distilled compound discombilities ob de cream, makes de coffee obsquob."

He got the girl.

Additions to Cookery.

Skinned figs put up in heavy syrup are among the delicious new conserves. They make an excellent dessert with whipped cream.

If you want a touch of bright green in the salad shred a dozen or two of the salted pistachio nuts and sprinkle over it.

Among the new desiccated fruits and vegetables which include all kinds from cabbage and spinach to the berries, there are raspberries which have retained their color and flavor and which are delicious for pies, puddings and sauces. The desiccated soup greens are useful to have in the storeroom and so are the parsley and celery which are so often wanted for flavoring. The fruits and vegetables need to be soaked for two or three hours before being cooked. But the soup greens and flavorings may be put in and be cooked with the soup or stew.

Gradyville.

We are all rejoicing over the recent rains we have had.

Uncle Joel Moore, of Weed, passed through here one day last week, enroute for Columbia.

Mr. Allen Parson and family, of Portland, visited their relatives here last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. W. C. Yates, of Portland, was through this section, the first of the week, looking after lambs at the market price.

James Q. Diddle made a business trip to Greensburg last Thursday.

Messrs. McKinney & Bishop, who are sawing for Durham & Hicks, of Greensburg, near this place, have about three hundred and twenty thousand feet of lumber, now on their yard. This lumber will be hauled to Greensburg at once.

Quite a number of our citizens spent several days, on the banks of Russell Creek, last week, fishing. Their success was not very good.

There have been a few May cherries on our market this season. They are very scarce consequently cherry preserves will be very scarce down this way.

Misses Nell, of Columbia, and Miss Mary Caldwell, of Portland, spent a day or so visiting Miss Mollie Flowers, of our city, last week.

Uncle Jesse Breeding was in our midst last Friday with his fine Peacock colt. We must say here, it is one of the finest colts that we have ever had in this part of old Adair.

Eugene Wethington, of Columbia, and Austin Wilmore, of this place, spent a day or so in Greensburg last week.

Misses Pedigo, of Summer-shade, and Christie, of Knifley, are visiting Rev. Christie and wife, of our city, this week.

Mrs. Robert McKinney, killed one day last week, near her residence, a very large rattle snake.

Guy Nell, of Columbia, on his return from Edmonton, spent one night in our town last week.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Nelson, of Greensburg, spent a day or so of last week visiting Ted and Bingham Harper, of our place.

Mr. N. Roach, the successful merchant, of Toria, spent one day in our midst last week. He informed us that his business was very good, considering the drouth we were going through.

Uncle Robert O. Keltner, one of the oldest and best citizens, informed us that Bro. John Moran, who lives in the Petis Fork community, would address us in the near future, on Spiritual Kingdom. Bro. Moran is a good Bible scholar and we will be glad to hear him.

Mr. L. Durham, of Greensburg spent a day or so of last week, out at his lumber yard near here.

We are glad to note that Bro. Coakley, a very noted evangelist of the Baptist church, will sometime during the month of July hold a series of meetings for us at this place.

Mr. Shed Tarter, who lives near this place, heard a disturbance in his chicken yard, one night last week, and proceeded at once to investigate the trouble, and to his surprise found that quite a number of his young fowls were gone. On close investigation he found a very large black snake in there that had swallowed all the small ones and those that were too large to swallow, the snake killed a number of them.

The recent good rains that have fallen have put new life in the appearance of every thing out this way, and we are glad to say that our farmers have transplanted at least seventy-five per cent of their tobacco crop. There have been over average crop set in this section. We have heard a great deal of complaint about our meadow grass and winter oats. There never was so much cheat as there is at this time. We have heard quite a number discussing the question as to whether this cheat would make hay, would it be profitable to cut it before it matures? The experience of some of our farmers is that it is no good at any time, while others hold that if you cut it before it gets ripe, it will make feed. Your reporter takes the idea that it is no good at any time it may be saved.

We are glad to say that the Adair Spoke Co., who have quite a lot of spokes at this place, will be here in a week or so with their machinery preparatory for manufacturing them for the market.

Mrs. W. B. Dulin, who has been confined to her room for a number of years, with a complication of diseases, has been, for the past week or so, in a very critical condition.

Mr. J. L. Conover is quite sick.

Mr. Milton Powell lost a good mare one day last week. She left a fine colt one day old. It learned to drink milk at once and seems to be doing well.

Mr. Taylor Young lost a nice mare and Mr. Tim Montgomery a good horse recently.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Callie Bryant, of this place, who is sorrowing over the death of her mother, which occurred in Gainsville, Texas, a few days ago. 'Tis 'oh so sad to give up mother, when we are permitted to be with her, to administer to her every need. But sadder still, when we cannot see her dear face or do one thing for her. But aunt Callie, knowing you as we do, and of your daily walk

Bakerton.

On last Monday the drouth was broken by a heavy rain fall which lasted all day and part of the night. Every thing looks as fresh as if it had been raining all spring, but it didn't rain enough to make the river rise any.

Everybody is about done planting corn in this part of the country and are preparing to sow peas. Think there will be a large crop sowed this time.

G. D. Parrish has a bad rising on his right hand, which he is worrying with day and night.

Jim Parrish, the little boy that had typhoid fever, is lots better and is able to sit up most of the time.

S. T. Waggener, of Burkesville, with the Cumberland Grocery Co., was here yesterday. He was coming in from a trip through Clinton and Russell counties.

Mr. Quarles, of Gainsboro, Tenn., with the Putnam Overall Co., was here yesterday.

Dirigo.

There is nothing so scarce in Dirigo as news. Every little spicy item has been handled until it has ceased to grow and is gradually dwindling away, and had it not been for the good shower of rain last Monday I verily believe there would have been no news at all by now.

Mrs. Lucy Campbell, who has been sick for several months, is no better and is not expected to survive many days.

We are having one of the best Sunday Schools in the county. It makes one feel good to see a class of from thirty to forty little boys and girls from five to eight years old come up and answer every question put to them.

Mr. J. D. Sharp, Amandaville, did business here last Saturday.

Mrs. Mose Wooten and children visited relatives at Bliss last week.
